| 09:45-10:30 | Session I: Addressing internal displacement in protracted crises through the triple nexus of humanitarian, development and peace (Plenary) Linking humanitarian and development actions is vital in responding to protracted internal displacement on the ground, and the interconnection with peace is increasingly being recognized. The World Humanitarian Summit and Grand Bargain commitments, the UN Development System and Peace and Security reforms, and the Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration (GCM) have given a renewed impetus to realizing the humanitarian, development and peace nexus – where appropriate and feasible. Panelists will examine how IOM and NGOs can work together on nexus operationalization and towards collective outcomes, with due consideration for the challenges for humanitarian principles, operations and partnerships. Presentations will help launch more specific discussions to be held in break out groups. Representatives of NGOs and IOM will discuss opportunities and challenges of joined-up approaches between humanitarian, development and peace building efforts for durable solutions to internal displacement. | Panelists: Louis Hoffman, IOM HQ, Head of Transition and Recovery Alyoscia D'Onofrio, IRC Geneva, Head of Office &amp; Senior Director Governance Technical Unit Ester Ruiz de Azua, IOM Ukraine, Emergency and Stabilization Programme Coordinator Wendy Barron, Asia Foundation Afghanistan, Deputy Country Representative Panel moderators: Melissa Pitotti, ICVA Geneva Head of Policy |

| 14:15-15:45 | Session II: IOM – NGO complementarities in protection (Plenary) Protection is a central pillar of humanitarian action. IOM adheres to the IASC definition of protection – all activities aimed at ensuring full respect for the rights of the individual in accordance with the letter and the spirit of the relevant bodies of law – yet in practice the broad scope of this definition requires enhancing complementarities to build a greater impact. This session will allow IOM and NGOs to discuss their respective roles and approaches to protection activities, thus laying down the bases for conducive interaction and the identification of complementarities. The discussions will further seek to explore the challenge of protection on the ground in protracted internal displacement settings with a view to HDPN in fragile contexts. | Speakers: Nadia Akmoun, IOM HQ,Protection Officer Kathrine Starup, DRC HQ,Head of Protection &amp;Global Protection Adviser Agnes Olusesse, IOM SouthSudan, Protection Officer Donato Hakim, SouthSudan Older People’sOrganization, ExecutiveDirector Dina Parmer, IOM field,Protection Coordinator Ellie Kemp, TranslatorsWithout Borders, Head ofCrisis Response |

|---------------------------|--|--|
|                           | This session will examine transitional justice, increasingly recognized as a key element in achieving durable solutions for internal displacement. Transitional justice consists of a range of measures that seek to address past human rights abuses such as reparations, restitution of land, property and housing, and justice – and security sector reforms – measures that in turn contribute to reconciliation and successful reintegration of IDPs. The session will examine these aspects, highlighting perspectives on policy; research reflecting on social cohesion; practice, challenges and opportunities when addressing housing, land and property matters; and IDP participation in policy development, implementation and monitoring. | Cecilia Jimenez-Damary, UN Special Rapporteur on the human rights of IDPs Nadia Siddiqui, Social Inquiry, Iraq, Co-Director Igor Cvetkovski, IOM HQ, Global Focal Point on Land, Property and Reparations Velma Šarić, Post-Conflict Research Center, Bosnia and Herzegovina, President María Angélica Gómez, CODHES, Colombia, Coordinator of Gender and Ethnic Approaches Carlotta Macera, IOM Iraq, Project Officer |
| 17:30-18:00 | Closing remarks and way forward  | Laura Thompson, IOM, Deputy Director General Ignacio Packer, ICVA, Executive Director  |
