

"Let us declare in one voice: We will not tolerate anyone committing or condoning Sexual Exploitation and Abuse. We will not let anyone cover up these crimes with the UN flag. ... Let us make zero tolerance a reality."

---

António Guterres - UN Secretary-General

“Windle International Kenya is committed to providing a space free of Sexual Exploitation and Abuse. Key to our operations is mainstreaming of protection and safeguarding policies in our programming. Together, we can create a safe space for the children, communities, families and individuals we serve by creating a culture of trust where anyone affected is able to come forward.”

---

Ms. Phyllis Mureu - Executive Director,
Windle International Kenya.

“The indecent act that you consider too minor to report on, is what gives the perpetrator the confidence to pull a major damaging act against you, your associates and friends; distract them before they destruct you. Report all forms of SEA to the relevant persons or authorities”

---

Joseph Mutua - Senior Education Programme Officer, Windle international Kenya

“Empowering and informing the society are the best ways of safeguarding them against sexual exploitation and abuse.”

---

Edwin M. Reni - Education Officer, LWF-Dadaab

“Sexual Exploitation and Abuse is a common issue happening across the camps and its surrounding and its caused by poverty, illiteracy and use of power and position, we need to hold each other’s hand and prevent it.”

---

Abdi Biriye - Youth Leader
lfo camp

“It is very important that we create community awareness on the causes and impact of Sexual Exploitation and Abuse especially among the vulnerable and the minority communities. That way, people will know how to protect themselves and their loved ones against this vice.”

---

Mary Niyoka - Minority Leader
Dagahaley camp

“Sexual Exploitation and Abuse is a bad act and it is our responsibility as community leaders, parents, teachers and the entire community representatives to prevent it”

---

Mohamed Abdi Olow- Camp chairman Ifo camp

“Protection from Sexual Exploitation and Abuse is a good initiative and I really support it. Our religion teaches us to protect people against any form of violence including sexual exploitation. This act mostly happens to women, young girls and children. We must protect them under all circumstances”

---

Abdullahi - Camp chairman Dagahaley Refugee camp
Dadaab Kenya

“We can make our communities free from any form of violence through community empowerment. Let us resolve to say No to Sexual Exploitation and Abuse and report when it occurs”.

---

Alinoor - Community Mobilizer
Windle International Kenya-Dadaab

“Our Islamic religion condemns any form of violence against humanity including Sexual Exploitation and Abuse. Please let us prevent it and protect our children, family and the community from this vice. Let us report when it happens”

---

Sheikh Osman Abdullahi-Imaam Masjid Raheem Mosque
Dagahaley camp Dadaab