

NOT SURE WHAT TO DO WHEN FACED WITH A CASE OF SEA?

HERE ARE 5 QUICK FACTS ABOUT SEXUAL EXPLOITATION AND ABUSE

1. Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (SEA) is a form of Gender Based Violence (GBV) characterised by actual or attempted abuse of position of vulnerability, power, or trust, for sexual purposes.

2. SEA includes:

- Sexual relationships with beneficiaries of services that involves improper use of position of influence and/or power.
- Exchange of money, employment, goods or services for sex
- Engaging in acts of sexual misconduct on grounds of cultural accommodation.

3. Everyone has a role to play in ending SEA. Failure to act against SEA encourages its continued occurrence.

4. You can report cases of SEA to the Police Victim Support Unit for action to be taken against the perpetrator.

5. Acting against SEA promotes safe and productive environments.
